

Mitchel Livingston is vice president for Student Affairs and Services and professor of Educational Studies at the University of Cincinnati. He joined UC in 1994 after serving as vice president for Student Affairs at the University at Albany, SUNY, and Dean of Students at Ohio State University.

Earning his Ph. D. in Higher Education Administration at Michigan State University, he received his master and bachelor degrees in Education from Southern Illinois University.

Dr. Livingston's commitment to public higher education is evidenced by the following achievements:

- thirty-five years administrative experience
- fourteen years teaching experience
- tenure as full professor
- leadership for multi-million fundraising initiatives
- national consultant implementing a model for developing just campus communities and in the areas of multi-culturalism, community building and organizational behavior
- keynote speaker for national educational and professional organizations
- service on five corporate and community boards
  - Fifth Third Bancorp
  - Fine Arts Fund Board
  - CET
  - Holocaust & Humanity Education
  - BRIDGES for a Just Community, Board Chair

Dr. Livingston received a number of honors and awards, including the Governor's Educator of the Year award, State of New York; Dr. Martin Luther King award for distinguished community service and Award for Excellence in Administration, University at Albany; Educator of the Year award, Anti-Defamation League, Albany, New York; and national spokesperson for INROADS, Inc. from 2004-06.

Livingston is married with twin sons working in the Cincinnati area.