BRIDGES FOR A JUST COMMUNITY PROMOTES HEHMAN TO DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

CINCINNATI, OH February 21, 2007 – BRIDGES for a Just Community recently promoted Anna Hehman to development manager. In this new capacity, she will have overall responsibility for the growth initiatives and fundraising activities of the local non-profit dedicated to inclusion and social justice.

Ms. Hehman previously distinguished herself as BRIDGES' event coordinator, responsible for the annual "Walk for a Just Community" and Annual Awards Dinner. She is very involved in Greater Cincinnati's young professionals community as a member of this year's C-Change leadership class, Mayor Mallory's Kitchen Cabinet group and the Legacy Young Professionals Leadership group of Northern Kentucky. She is a resident of Covington, Kentucky.

"Anna has made a dramatic impact on our organization in the short time she has been here – her increased responsibility for our development efforts is well-deserved," said Robert C. "Chip" Harrod, president and CEO of BRIDGES for a Just Community.
